Re: Loan Application

Dear Steven Keyser

Thank you for your recent application for a loan through Upgrade, Inc. (DBAs include Universal Credit and the names www.upgrade.com/landing/dba) ("Upgrade") from Upgrade's bank partner: Cross River Bank (1000 North West Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801). Your request for a loan was carefully considered by our bank partner, and we regret that they are unable to approve your application at this time, for the following reason(s):

- High debt in relation to income
- Income or credit history insufficient for loan
- Requested amount unsupported by income

The consumer reporting agency contacted that provided information that influenced our bank partner's credit decision in whole or in part was:

The reporting agency played no part in our bank partner's credit decision and is unable to supply specific reasons why they have denied credit to you. You have a right under the Fair Credit Reporting Act to know the information contained in your credit file at the consumer reporting agency. You also have a right to a free copy of your report from the reporting agency, if you request it no later than 60 days after you receive this notice. In addition, if you find that any information contained in the report you received is inaccurate or incomplete, you have the right to dispute the matter with the reporting agency. Any questions regarding such information should be directed to TransUnion Consumer Solutions. If you have any questions regarding this letter, you should contact us at Upgrade, Inc, 2 N. Central Ave. 10th Floor Phoenix, AZ 85004 (844) 742-3468.

Our bank partner also obtained your credit score from TransUnion Consumer Solutions and used it in making its credit decision. Your credit score is a number that reflects the information in your consumer report. Your credit score can change, depending on how the information in your consumer report changes.

Your credit score: 643

Date: 2026-03-10

Scores range from a low of 300 to a high of 850.

Key factors that adversely affected your credit score:

- Serious delinquency
- Proportion of balances to credit limits on bank/national revolving or other revolving accounts is too high
- Length of time accounts have been established
- Proportion of loan balances to loan amounts is too high

In addition to the factors listed above, the number of inquiries on the consumer's credit file has adversely affected the credit score.

If you have any questions regarding your credit score, you should contact TransUnion Consumer Solutions at:

P.O. Box 2000

Chester, PA 19022-2000

(800) 916-8800

Sincerely,

Upgrade, Inc.

NOTICE

The federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The Federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is Division of Depositor and Consumer Protection, National Center for Consumer and Depositor Assistance, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, 1100 Walnut Street, Box #11, Kansas City, MO 64106.
